THE DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

7 July 1976

Mr. Harry Fitzwater
Director of Training
Chamber of Commerce Building

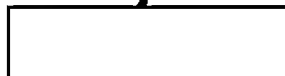

Dear Harry:

Thank you for your letter concerning my appointment as DDCI. As you say, the job will be demanding and challenging but it will be full of opportunities as well. And, working with solid professionals like you, I am sure the future will be a rosy one.

Certainly I will give it the very best I have. All of us have a great deal at stake.

All the best.

Faithfully yours,

E. H. Knoche
